BAOASE RESTAURANT & NIGHTLIFE RECOMMENDATIONS

Delve into the island's culinary treasures and bustling nightlife.

The Baoase family is very excited to welcome you to our beautiful island. In this brochure, we selected our top picks for restaurants, drinks, bites and entertainment for you to experience the colorful island of Curaçao with all her history, Caribbean culture and cuisine.

Curaçao has many international and cosmopolitan chefs with a large variety of restaurants serving different cuisines for you to enjoy. Though our Baoase Culinary Beach Restaurant and Sunset Deck Restaurant are believed to be one of the best restaurants on the island for fine dining, we do recommend exploring the other amazing restaurants and bars Curaçao has to offer.

Our Guest Services Team would be more than happy to assist you with your restaurant reservations.

BAOASE CULINARY BEACH RESTAURANT

Fine-dining with Asian influences and a whiff of Caribbean flavors.

In the heart of our resort - where the sea brushes the legs of the dinner tables - you find Baoase Culinary Beach Restaurant. Executive Chef René Klop combines his French techniques with a whiff of tropical influences and Asian flavors. Add tremendous ambition, and beach-proof dishes become something more. Fresher. Refined. But still with a sandals-and-sundress-attitude.

René ingeniously combines ingredients to make them shine through simplicity. The beachfront location offers a beautiful backdrop for breakfast, lunch, dinner or just a perfect ending to the day with cocktails. The restaurant was voted Best Restaurant in the Caribbean by Caribbean Journal in 2017.

A whiff of the city to the island shore

After the success of their Michelin starred Amsterdam restaurant 212*, Richard van Oostenbrugge and Thomas Groot opened their first restaurant on Curaçao in the summer of 2019. They renovated the beautiful 'De Goede Hoop' estate for their newest gastronomic venture. 020 - which is Amsterdam's area code - brings a whiff of city to the shore. This is where the Curaçao flavor meets a world class culinary experience. With breathtaking ocean views, light and relaxed dishes, and an a la carte menu, 020 is definitely the cool, younger brother of 212.
